About Jan:

Jan is an unconventional Career Counsellor who finds it frustrating to watch people spend weeks or months crafting Resumes for jobs they won't enjoy. She encourages Boomers to take time to look inside for the answers to what they really want. She will help you craft a plan to live your values. Jan offers a helping hand so you can live and work on your terms.

Book Description:

Work On Your Own Terms in midlife & beyond walks you through the 6 common fears that hold people back from living their dreams. It's a thought-provoking, quirky look at how to fulfill your potential.

"I highly recommend Jan's book to those who may be lost in work transition or who seek the freedom to live their values more fully."
